Your Excellency,

Atena Daemi, Omid Alishenas, Arash Sadeghi, and Golrokh Ebrahimi Iraee have been targeted solely for their peaceful human rights activities. Atena Daemi, Arash Sadeghi, and Golrokh Ebrahimi Iraee had all been imprisoned in Evin prison in Tehran and are prisoners of conscience. Omid Alishenas was given conditional release on 15 July 2017, though he could be recalled to prison any day. On 24 January, Golrokh Ebrahimi Iraee and Atena Daemi were transferred from Tehran's Evin prison to Shahr-e Rey prison in Varamin. On 3 February, the two women went on a hunger strike in protest of the transfer. On 15 February, Atena Daemi ended her strike, though Golrokh continues hers, which is causing a severe deterioration in her health and for which she may not be receiving adequate access to medical care.

As member / sympathizer of the human right organization amnesty international, I urge you to release the prisoners of conscience Atena Daemi, Arash Sadeghi, and Golrokh Ebrahimi Iraee immediately and unconditionally, as they are imprisoned solely for the peaceful exercise of their rights to freedom of expression, association, and peaceful assembly including through their human rights work, and ensure their convictions and sentences are quashed.

Ensure also that the conviction of Omid Alishenas is quashed and his release is made unconditional. Guarantee that, pending their release, the three remaining prisoners are protected from torture and other ill-treatment, including through the denial of medical care and receive access to specialized medical care.

Yours sincerely
