Dear Chief Procurator,

Dong Guangping was sentenced on 13 July 2018 to 42 months in prison. He was convicted of "inciting subversion" and "crossing the national border illegally". According to state media, Dong Guangping's conviction of "inciting subversion" was based on his attendance at two gatherings in Thailand that the Chinese government considered to be aimed at "subverting state power" and "overthrowing the socialist system". Ever since Dong Guangping was detained, no official information has been shared by the authorities regarding his whereabouts or well-being. Held in incommunicado detention, he remains at grave risk of torture and other ill-treatment.

As a member / sympathizing of amnesty international, I want to ask you to ensure that Dong Guangping is either released or tried in line with international fair trial standards, and not for the peaceful exercise of his human rights.

Yours sincerely
